B) Reading (7 Marks)

A1 Read the following passage, then answer the questions:

Studying history is important for many reasons. It helps us understand how past events have shaped the present. By learning about different cultures, wars, and inventions, we can see how they influence our lives today. For example, understanding the causes of World War II can help us prevent future conflicts.

History teaches us valuable lessons. We can learn from the mistakes and successes of people in the past. This knowledge can guide us in making better decisions in our own lives. For instance, studying the civil rights movement can inspire us to fight for equality and justice.

History helps us appreciate different cultures and perspectives. By learning about the traditions and beliefs of people from different times and places, we become more open-minded and respectful. This can lead to a more peaceful and connected world.

Studying history is not just about memorizing dates and facts. It is about understanding the world and our place in it. It helps us learn from the past, make better choices in the present, and build a better future.

"What a strange way to act," thought the rich man "I bet that is the thief who stole from me yesterday I will tell the judge about this"

The judge listened to the rich man's story "Find this man and bring him to me," said the judge "Then I will find out if he stole your money"

When the thief heard that the judge wanted to see him, he knew he might be in big trouble He went to an old woman who was supposed to be very wise and asked for her advice "I will give you half the money I stole if you will help me," promised the thief The old woman agreed to help.

"Go home and dress in rags," said the old woman "Rub dirt all over your face. Then go to see the judge. When he asks you a question, rub your head and say 'Moo!' Then you will not get in any trouble."

The thief did exactly what the old woman had said. Every time the judge asked him a question, he rubbed his head and said, 'Moo!'

"This man must be crazy," said the judge "I have no way to tell if he is guilty Let him go. "The thief was overjoyed.

The next day, the old woman went to the thief and asked for the money he had promised her. The thief just rubbed his head and said, "Moo!" The old woman gave up and went home without her money.
